THE BROOM

"Truth shall make you free".

This paper is devoted to end war. We expose the war-makers and all activities that finally culminate in war. Hence we expose all fake religious, economic and political activities that cloak the real war preparations.

We all admire a man who says what he thinks — as long as he says it about other people.

When Madmen Dispense "Justice"

By C. LEON de ARYAN

Judge Leon Yankwich, of the U. S. District Court in Los Angeles, sentenced Arthur L. (the Voice) Bell and nine alleged "Co-conspirators to commit sedition" in 1943 to five years in jail. Last week the Appellate Court in San Francisco set them free and ordered the indictments dismissed. Yet, Judge Yankwich knew exactly the same statutes which decided the justices of the appellate court to dismiss the indictments. Fortunately Bell and his nine fellow victims of the madman Yankwich, had enough money to hire high-power attornies who knew their stuff and brought out the facts.

And because Bell had enough money and foresight to hire A. L. Wirin as attorney for the defense, and Wirin is of the same persuasion mentally in "liberal" circles as Yankwich, Bell was admitted to bail pending appeal and the ten of them were not held in jail.

But others who did not have the millions of dollars and the ability to find good attorneys, have had to languish in jail for years. I personally, helped Wirin and other private attorneys release the 9 victims of the madmen Earl Warren and Warren Olney III, on bail in 1944, after the "Friends of Progress" had languished for almost two years in jail on trumped up charges, smacking also of "sedition" against the state of California. Warren was running for governor then and wanted the publicity of being a "patriotic" bloodhound. Olney was Warren's dirty bloodhound, a man without conscience or scruple. Olney again is involved in the persecution of Bell and "Christ's Church of the Golden Rule" because the Church and Bell dare oppose war.

But suppose Bell and the nine had been poor people? They would have had to serve unjust terms, because they are CHRISTIANS.

Would anyone attempt to tell us that Judge Yankwich is so stupid he did not know the law? Attorney Russell Parsons brought it out before the case even came up for trial that the Judicial Code Sec. 275, 28 U. S. 338, etc., provides that Jury panels must conform to the state law in the matter of selection. Yankwich knew darn well that the Grand Jury was illegally impanelled and hence its indictment against Bell et al was null and void because women had been excluded. Yet, Yankwich deliberately chose to ignore the law and play to the war-mad galleries by refusing to dismiss the indictment which the Appellate Court now orders him to dismiss.

This is what happens when madmen dispense with justice and conduct a lynch trial. Yankwich qualifies. He claims to be a liberal, he is liberal with other people's lives and has no conscience that would have held him to the line of integrity so that of his own motion he would have done justice, according to law, as he swore.

Here the USA advertises to the world that in this country we enjoy liberty of religion and equality under the law, yet, because Bell and his companions DARED live up to the precepts of the Christ, Yankwich, who claims he, too, was baptized when I asked him whether he was Jewish, sentenced Bell to jail for doing the very things the Christ enjoins us to do, that is: love God and fear God MORE than any other "authority" to the contrary. Yankwich set himself up above the Christ, in whose name he claims to have been baptized, above the law of the land even, to vent his madness at ten men who dared oppose war in wartime as good Christians always must do. And it took the Appellate Court to show up Yankwich for what he is.

MADMEN RUN THE BANKRUPTCY COURT

But the story of Bell and his fearless opposition to the war-madmen does not stop with the "sedition" case which has been reversed just now. Bell is spending his time in bankruptcy court into which he was thrown by the machinations of the CIO and their stooge, then Attorney General of California, Robert W. Kenny. Kenny in turn hired Olney for his well known ability to pervert the law and the facts, demonstrated in the "Friends of Progress" case, to persecute Bell in state court.

To the shame of the state of California, both the Att. Gen. and the Superior Court fell for the demands of the CIO to persecute Bell and his Church because they refused to submit to CIO dictation in the many enterprises the Church was engaged in. To escape the paralysis of the receivership in state court Bell entered voluntary bankruptcy in federal court. But the evil genius of the CIO followed him there, too, and Olney succeeded to exert persuasive influence upon the federal judge and his referee in bankruptcy.

One would not believe such things could happen. But the record shows that Referee Benno M. Brink has ruled repeatedly that Bell has no private rights as an individual BECAUSE BELL DEVOTED HIS WHOLE LIFE to the service of the Church.

Do you grasp the import? Bell, according to these rulings, is no longer an American citizen with rights which courts are bound to respect under the Constitution, but merely CHATTEL OF THE BANKRUPTCY COURT. He is lower in the scale of "rights" than a black slave before Lincoln. The court ruled that he has no personal property, no religious immunity, does not own even his own mind if he wrote his thoughts down. That he does not own a penny, nor the clothes he wears. Benno M. Brink is the GOD ALMIGHTY who as referee in bankruptcy court CONTROLS the bankrupt estate and BELL as its chattel slave.

The enormity of this outrage is so revolting that one has to take drastic means to illustrate it and bring home to our readers what madmen will do when elevated to judicial rank. If you follow the line of cartoons on this page you will note that Bell became property of the bankrupt estate and of course, the trustees must not let anything go to waste, not even what Bell ate. When they could not recover what Bell claims to be his "personal" property and which Brink has ruled belongs to the trustees in bankruptcy, James Carter, U.S. District Attorney went before the Grand Jury and procured an indictment that Bell has been "hiding" various ass-ets and refuses to deliver them to Brink by claiming rights of privacy. And the Grand Jury knowing not the true score voted such an indictment.

Bell is at liberty under this new indictment having posted $5000 bail bonds.

Zionist Lies Exposed

Editor's Note: This is not a paid Adv.

"Am I therefore to become your enemy because I tell you the truth?" Gal., 4:16.

Zionists obtain support from persons of the Jewish and non-Jewish faiths by the use of the untruth that persons of the Jewish faith are members of an ancient so-called "Jewish race" which has become a "dispersed people" in every part of the world. The foremost world's recognized authorities on (1) the histories of the nations of Europe, Asia and Africa and (2) the racial origins of the inhabitants of these continents contradict and disprove this Zionist untruth. These authorities agree that persons of the Jewish faith are the descendants of many widely-scattered native populations belonging to nearly every race known to science who became converted to Judaism between 1500 B. C. and 1000 A. D. and since. These authorities agree that shortly after Judaism was established as an organized religion in the accepted sense of the word, it spread from the Holy Land to the pagan peoples inhabiting the North African and European shores of the Mediterranean, to countries in Western Europe, Arabia, India, China and Ethiopia. These native populations were at first converted to Judaism by missionaries, traders, voyagers, settlers or by exiles who came from the Holy Land. They came in very small numbers and when they remained in these countries they were soon assimilated by the native populations. As a result of intermarriage with the native populations all traces of their former racial origins practically disappeared. In this way many large native populations of the Jewish faith of nearly every race known to science were developed in widely scattered parts of Europe, Asia and Africa. The racial origins of populations thus converted to Judaism as it spread were mostly non-Semitic The world's Semitic population of the Jewish faith at that time was limited to the founders of Judaism and Arabs who had become converted to Judaism. The widely-scattered non-Semitic native populations of the Jewish faith include Falashas of Ethiopia (Black), Chinese in China (Mongolian), Tamils in India (Black), Moors in North Africa (Black), Berbers of North Africa (Aryan), Khazars of Eastern Europe (Turkish - Finnish), Negroes of United States (Black), Nubians of Africa (Negroid), Fulas of Senegambia (Negro), Gold Coast of Africa (Negro), Polish of Poland (Teutonic, Iranic, Ruthenian, and Mongoloid), Crimeans (Tartars), Daghestan of Derbent (Persian), Bokhara (Turkoman, Mongol), French (Gallic), German (Teutonic), Spanish (Latin), Greek (Greek), English (Anglo-Saxon), Galician (Slavic), Lithuanian (Slavic), and many others of nearly every subracial group of Europe, Africa and Asia. These widely-scattered peoples all of the Jewish faith have the same religious belief but do not constitute a "Jewish race", their belief in Judaism being the only tie which they can have common to each other. Persons of the Christian faiths and of the Moslem faith throughout the world of nearly every race known to science likewise do not constitute either a "Christian race" or a "Moslem race". Religious beliefs do not ever determine racial origins. That fact is incontestible. A Zionist claim cannot disprove fact.

"Who is it that darkeneth counsel by words without knowledge?" Job, 38:2.

Zionists claim that persons of the Jewish faith in eastern Europe (Polish, Lithuanian, Galician, Ukranian, Russian and Rumanian) have a legitimate right to be "repatriated" to Palestine, connoting their right to return to the country of their origin. The basis for this Zionist claim is contradicted and disapproved by the foremost world's outstanding historians, ethnologists, anthropologists, philologists and cartographers. The works of these notable Jewish and non-Jewish authorities are to be found in the leading public libraries and educational institutions of higher learning. These authorities agree that persons of the Jewish faith in eastern Europe (Polish, Lithuanian, Galician, Ukranian, Russian and Rumanian) are the descendants largely of a non-Semitic Turkish-Finnish race which came into Europe from Asia about the 1st century A. D. by a land route north of the Caspian Sea. These people are known in history as Khazars. The Khazars had always been a pagan people. They settled in eastern Europe and there established the Khazar kingdom. By continuous and successful conquests for which the Khazars became famous in history, their kingdom increased in size until by the 8th century A. D. it occupied the greater portion of eastern Europe located west of the Urals and north of the Black Sea and extending far westwards into Europe. The Khazar nation was converted to Judaism at about the end of the 7th century A. D. The Khazar king in (ca.) 692 selected Judaism rather than either the Christian or Moslem religions which were striving to convert the Khazar king and the Khazar nation to Christianity or to Mohammedanism. After the conversion of the Khazars to Judaism only a Jewish king could occupy the Khazar throne. Conversion of the Khazars to Judaism was very successful. Judaism became the state religion. Synagogues and schools for teaching Judaism to the Khazars and peoples conquered by them were built throughout the kingdom. Rabbis to officiate in synagogues and teachers for the schools were imported from Spain. These non-Semitic Turkish-Finnish people from Asia, now converted to Judaism, and as the Khazar kingdom dominated eastern Europe. This great and powerful Jewish kingdom at the peak of its power was collecting tribute from no less than twenty-five conquered peoples. Conquest was their vocation.

"To give light to them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow." Luke, 1:79.

This great and powerful Jewish kingdom flourished for almost five hundred years without a setback. Even the neighboring mighty Byzantine and Persian empires feared the Khazars and eagerly sought military alliances with them. Towards the end of the 10th century A.D., the Khazars were defeated in a war with and conquered by the Russians (Varangians) who came down upon them from out of the north. For the first time in their history this Jewish kingdom was defeated and the Khazars were conquered. This conquest of the Khazars was completed in the middle of the 13th century A.D. The Khazar population and former Khazar territory were thus incorporated into the expanded Russian state. The Khazar kingdom disappears at this time from the history of the world. The conquest of the Khazar kingdom by the Russians accounts for the presence in southern Russia of the large concentrated population of the Jewish faith. During the next few centuries large parts of this concentrated Jewish population were included in the newly formed Polish, Lithuanian, Galician, Rumanian and other states which through conquests were carved out of the former great Russia. These new states were in their turn reconquered by Russia and these large concentrated Jewish populations were reunited again as Russians. From the 13th century A. D. to the outbreak of World War II the eastern European area of southern Russia underwent very little ethnic change and continued to include the descendants of the former Khazar Jewish kingdom. Zionists misrepresent to the world that these eastern European persons of the Jewish faith (Polish, Lithuanian, Galician, Ukranian, Russian and Rumanian) have a legitimate right to be "repatriated" to Palestine, connoting a return to the country of their origin, a country with which Khazars in all their history have had neither a historical nor racial association, the Holy Land being about one-thousand five-hundred miles from the Khazar kingdom.

Little Leatherman vs. Geneva Convention

Dear Count Kosti:—

"Every little drop helps" said the flea as he sailed over the ocean, so . . . herewith 25 buckshot for your sling to heave at that monstrous Goliath of Court-corruption, yclept Tyrannosaurus Americanus, rampant all over the stage, agayne and agayne and agayne, evil offspring of an evil era—the Ruseveltian Pandora's Box—not leaving us Hope even—witness that evil genius' Eicher's "sedition-trial", witness Jackass Lynch's Nuernberg kangaroo court, and now that Detroit farce of "Little Leatherman" vs. the Geneva Convention. Little Leatherman is what Lederle does mean.

"Contempt of Court"—Pshaw! These fellows are beneath contempt even. Contempt says Webster is: scorn: disgrace: (law) disregard of the rules or an offense against the dignity of a court. And when Judges themselves become contemptuous, haughty and scornful of their own presupposed Dignity — then what? Then the People have: Tyranny!

"Where law ends, tyranny begins" said Wm. Pitt the Elder. And said Jefferson: "Resistance to tyrants is obedience to God". Said he further: "I have sworn upon the altar of God eternal hostility against every form of tyranny over the mind of man". Particeps criminis? Never, say I, when Right and Righteousness is embattled. So, let's gird our loins and fight!

Joan's case is apt to be come a "cause celebre". Let her rejoice that she can be the center of this great Battle, for unlike her famous namesake she is not burned at the stake but merely burned up over judicial bigotry and infamy. A host of friends are with her.

Love to you, Kosti, from ye "DUKE".

* * * *

Dear Duke:

Thanks for starting the ball rolling with your 25 bucks ($25). If one hundred people, in your circumstances, who could spare $25 each were to donate them, I would soon be in Detroit and Cincinnati taking steps to free Joan on bond while the case is pending on appeal. I really should have been there before and during the trial to direct the defense. I notice that the record is not what it could have been had my instructions been followed to the letter. One has to explain a lot of things to lawyers who are used to following routine but become confronted with an extraordinary situation. While I have the knowledge, the finances have to be supplied by those who realize that but for the grace of God, they might have been in Joan's position.

This world will not be a better world unless the many do their share to make it so.

Love, KOSTI.

* * * *

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

Your letter received yesterday. I do not know what to say, everything looks hopeless.

Mr. Bowles, Joan's attorney had asked for $150 to make a trip to Cincinnati to see about an appeal bond, then when we came to his office, he refused to accept $150, saying he wants $2000 in advance for the whole case, meantime Joan sits in jail and waits—for how long?

I have not heard or seen of Mr. Bowles since and that's a whole week ago. That $150 was $50 of Joan's money and $100 my fare back to California. I am still holding it.

Mr. Reardon (Jim's attorney) is located in the Ford building. He was an unpaid attorney appointed by the court and I don't think will care to go along free any more.

I gave Joan your letter today. I thought it might cheer her a bit. She looked very bad, had a severe headache.

I feel sort of useless now, although I visit Joan almost daily. Hoping that something is moving along faster to help Joan, will close for now.

Sincerely, GERTRUDE M. WOUTERS

* * * *

Dear Trude:

You are not useless as long as you can cheer up your sister. I am sure matters are slowly improving and one must have the patience of Job.

Money is slowly coming in for the defense fund. I have now $59 and I never give up, you know. It's a matter of undying persistence.

You don't realize that it would cost considerably more than $150 to get Joan out on bond. One has to get the record and study it for the proper points to make, that the petition to the Appellate Court may be well grounded to compel issuance of an order to admit Joan to bond. If I have the money and come to Detroit, it will take some time to study the record and draw up the proper petition. The $150 would be merely additional expenses for the attorney for the trip and time in court.

Joan is much better off than many people in Germany. She has to remind herself of that. In the meantime I am doing all in my power and we shall succeed in the end as we did at Tehachepi. Sincerely, KOSTI.

* * * *

Dear Joan:

You had asked me to write to you at the County Jail but in the same mail I received a letter from Trude and one from Mr. Bowles informing me that you will be taken to W. Va. the next day. Hence I waited for your new address.

Trude wrote me again so I know you are still in Detroit. Darling, as before, you simply must teach yourself to be patient. If we had lots of money you might not be in jail at all. As it is I have to get it first before I can do a thing. It is slowly coming in. I have $59 on hand for you and more will arrive. My readers are slow till they wake up to what is really going on.

People in Germany are suffering worse than you do. When I was in jail I always reminded myself that the Yanks in Jap prisons were suffering worse. So I survived. As soon as I have the money I will go to Detroit and attend to matters the way I did when you were in Tehachepi. So cheer up and be patient,

Love, KOSTI.

An Open Letter to the President

By SALEM BADER

Japan's power to make war, you will find on page A-2869 in the Congressional record for July 9th, 1942. Mr. Baruch and his friends will be able to throw some light on that subject. And as far as Hitler and his Nazis—well Mr. Baruch and the other gentlemen I mentioned will explain that too.

So you would keep the Atomic Bomb a secret. A SECRET? For how long? Every bestial and barbaric weapon was to be a secret and only for the "betterment of mankind". Until the war-mongers and profiteers get ahold of it.

It just occurs to me, Sir, that if you had this wonderful secret in your hands at Potsdam, why did you not use it, even mildly, to check Mr. Stalin's ambitions to gobble up the whole of Europe and other points East. Even if Mr. Roosevelt had betrayed all those European peoples as well as the American people secretly and shamefully, couldn't you have rejected those traitorous sell-outs. It certainly would have raised your stature and the honor of the American people in the eyes of the world.

Today, Mr. President, I read where you PERSONALLY ADMITTED that the use of the bomb was ordered by you. You go on to say, "The Japanese were given fair warning, and were offered the terms which they finally accepted, WELL IN ADVANCE OF THE DROPPING OF THE BOMB. I imagine the bomb caused them to accept the terms."

Now Mr. President, you are talking like your predecessor. Out of the two sides of your mouth. First you tell us that the Japanese accepted our terms, well in advance of the dropping of the bomb, then you imagine the bomb caused them to accept our terms. Which is it, sir? Perhaps you didn't think a bunch of morons like us would notice this monstrous double talk, or perhaps you people in high places don't care what we think. Yes—perhaps your contempt for us is well deserved. No people with character or pride or concern for their children would stand for what we the American people have. QUOT SERVI, AMERICA.

If those Japanese accepted our terms, why IN HEAVEN'S NAME DID WE HAVE TO DROP THE BOMB? Sheer sadism? For the mere joy of seeing hundreds of thousands of innocents die a horrible death? Very funny! And we call Hitler and Stalin brutal murderers!! Against all this General MacArthur has recently asked for 10,000 Christian missionaries. What Christianity? Onward Christian Soldiers—who will make the uniforms?

As if all this is not enough, I read where one of your generals named George Kenny has just broken a sensational piece of news to 1200 American women. These call themselves delegates to the Women's Patriotic Conference representing 29 organizations. Here it is: "The attack will come . . . by both piloted and pilotless aircraft, by radio controlled missiles, by rockets —all loaded with atomic bombs, super explosives, super incendiaries, bacterial weapons." And this first attack will kill 25 millions of Americans.

There it is! That's the pay-off, mothers and fathers of America.

Then Mr. Patterson tells this collection of child-bearing women that universal military training is a "must". And all 1200 shouted Ya! Ya! This is a cross-section of the super-American womanhood whom by furs, plumes and perfumes one would believe they were adult, thinking and civilized. If these are the elite, then heaven help the working girl.

"Yes, Mr. Patterson—you may have our sons —gladly." The mothers sang in unison. Echoes of Hitler, Stalin and Atlee—only in those countries their women were paid cash bonuses for child bearing.

How will military conscription save us Mr. President if in 24 hours of attack we lose 25 millions of Americans?! I suppose that if this attack was to last a week, it would be the finish of all of us.

Where would the "next Hitler" get the atomic bombs, airplanes and other weapons of death? If my memory has not failed me, and many of us do have short memories, the late Hitler and Tojo got their stuff from the United States!

Why would anybody want to do to us anything so horrible anyway? Aren't we the Christian do-gooders who just spent 400 billions of dollars to "save the world"? Didn't we just "liberate" Europe and Asia and North Africa? Didn't we give Britain 23 billions for war and Russia 11 billions for war and everybody else a few billions for war? Didn't we recently give birth to the wonderful U. N. O. which was going to usher in the millennium?

Yes, Mr. President, what I am saying sounds crazy. It doesn't make sense! But I assure you, it is not as crazy as all the stuff we have been getting from our so-called leaders the last few years!

Now Mr. President, let's get down to business.

All the reams and reams of propaganda and lies Washington has been flooding this nation with the last few years have not fooled us all! There are many of us who still know what the score is—and still care!

We — have destroyed Europe. We — have flattened city after city in the most wanton manner imaginable. We—have blasted women and children out of their homes in the most merciless process ever heard of, and have driven them into wandering, abject and crazed human-cattle. Plucked them out of their centuries old homes at a moment's notice and herded them across hundreds of miles of scorched country and strange frontiers, with no food, no clothing or shelter. This we have done to the helpless and innocent of any crime of war. Their soldiers and prisoners of war we have corralled into concentration camps or sold into slavery to the French, British and Russians. Every cruelty the Nazis were ever accused of or did we matched and exceeded ten-fold. The Morgenthau plan which we enforced against a beaten people is the most barbaric in the annals of history. We have proved to all time that never could a nation like ours, which claims justice, humanitarianism and Christianity as its precepts, descend to such acts of betrayals and inhumanity. Our words of self-justification is a sham. The world does not believe us. We cannot say to the world the Atomic Bomb is safe in our hands. We not only invented it but used it unnecessarily. We as people have become lackeys and hired Hessians of the British, the French, the Russians, the Jews and our international bankers, only we are not worthy of our hire, we have to pay for this privilege. Our young men have been bludgeoned into a position of liveried servility and our citizens have been reduced into an ant-heap of taxed beasts of burden. Our God is mammon, and our worship is pagan!

(Editor's Note: Our apologies to the pagans!)

* * * *

(To be concluded)

Editor's Note: Salem Bader, like many members of Parliament in London, labors under the impression given by various public speakers, among them President Truman, that the Japanese government officially accepted the terms of surrender proposed by the USA, previous to the loosening of the two A-bombs. This has been repeatedly denied, both in Parliament and in the USA. Apparently the Japanese did inform our government that they would accept the terms, but such information was not yet official and to beat the deadline which would have stopped the war, hurriedly the two A-bombs were loosened BECAUSE IT WAS THE ONLY CHANCE the USA had to try out the A-bombs on LIVING targets.

The same type of "reasoning" preceded Pearl Harbor where Gen. Marshall decided to keep mum to give the Japs a chance to start the war. For doing this Truman appointed him secretary of state. Marshall made possible the disaster at Pearl Harbor, Truman accepted the responsibility for the two A-bomb crimes. Fine pair of "statesmen" they make.

Ga Llama, the Secret of Life

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 24,—The most important thing for us is to know our Self. I live with my Self all the time.

Do you know who you are? If not, why not? If you don't know even the One whose company you cannot depart, ever, can you possibly know another whom you meet only for a while?

To teach us who we are, this task Dr. Otoman Zar Adusht Hanish undertook during the last half of the past century and the first quarter of this one. Then he died. Being nothing more than another human being, with all the fault's of Eve's children, much of the work he did is obscured by weaknesses which his followers are unable to distinguish from the teachings because they parrot but don't live up to the precepts. In the course of our presentation of the Aryan or Zend Religion of Life we shall illustrate our subject and where necessary point to the mistakes of Dr. Hanish, since we are no respector of persons but owe first allegiance to the Truth only.

Had Dr. Hanish brought us no other message, save Ga Llama, all his efforts are well worth it. But, of course, he brought us information of a detailed nature and with it instructed us in the meaning of prayers, exercises, songs, rituals and social customs that place us in telepathic contact with the Saints and Associates of God. The Spirit gives Life, the letter kills; alas, too many imitate the letter but lack in Spirit. When one notices that Henry Sorge cannot consecrate a child to Mazda's service because he does not know how, but like a parrot reads an inappropriate manuscript of a consecration made by "the little master" to a child of different gender, different aptitudes, different parents and different specific aims; when one notices that Emanuel reads like a parrot the ritual on New Year's eve, even repents (the hypocrite) but continues in the same materialistic, cowardly fashion to place financial profit above the Spirit of Service,—then it is about time to outline again the fundamentals of our Aryan-Zend Religion that we may not be misled by these two ignoramuses and fakers.

Ga Llama means "to concentrate". Naturally, you cannot concentrate except upon your own Source of Life where you'll find the focalization of everything you experience. Then you become conscious of the Life Principle in your Self. It took me 42 years of constant practice to succeed in making the discovery.

When one remembers the eternity of Being; that we are in the midst of flux; that there is change every second; that even if we live here 77 years or more, we still did not finish our life, hence return again and again; then it becomes reasonable to start devoting ourselves already now to finding out "who I am and how do I produce my own existence in matter". This is what Ga Llama means: To discover the Life Principle and apply it.

When our engineers discovered the principle of mathematics, chemistry, electricity and applied each in their domain, they transformed the labors of man from that of a drudging beast to a master who controls power and machines by handling the mechanical levers and push buttons.

Thus, as each one of us discovers the Principle of Life-generation in himself, he, then, can control his life and shape it at will. This makes man the Master of his existence: Master-Man.

Health and Breath Culture is a wonderful guide to Ga Llama and if you follow it faithfully for 42 years you will discover what it means and how it works.

Bear in mind: It was written by an Asiatic teacher with a background completely alien to American life, hence, in a language and terms that puzzle and confound the average mind, even though its intention was to be simple so even a child could understand. But as we watch the results upon the followers of Dr. Hanish it becomes evident they failed to catch on to 90% of the instructions, hence one cannot take them for a pattern of Mazda-worship. In fact, like our "Christian" churches, they are largely an example of what the Mazda religion is not.

The reason? When they listen to the teaching, or read the instructions, their intelligence does not comprehend the meaning of the words. They imagine that they caught on to the principle presented, but their ignorance plays them tricks. The notions they form are their own;

Either ethical or hygienic motives will induce men to become vegetarians. These converts are rising while their opponents, the meat eaters, are degenerating.
—Editor, Nature's Path, N. Y.

About a half a century ago, Dr. Charles W. Dabney, at that time Assistant Secretary of Agriculture, asked Dr. John Harvey Kellogg to prepare a vegetable food capable of taking the place of meat in the American dietary. A considerable proportion of the extensive grazing lands of the West were ebbing, cut up and devoted to farming, and Dr. Dabney stated that as the population of the country increased, the number of animals raised for food would diminish, and there would be a meat shortage which would become increasingly acute from year to year. His prediction did not come true because the per capita consumption of meat has steadily decreased until today it is only fifty percent of the exceedingly high figure of five decades ago. This radical change in the eating habits of the American people has had no untoward effect upon the health of the people, but the very reverse.

Scientific research has demonstrated that of more than a score of amino acids which have been studied, ten are absolutely essential for growing children and eight for healthy adults, and even life itself. It is only the protein of our foods which supplies amino acids. The protein of most nuts, including the humble peanut, which is really not a nut but a legume, the soybean, milk, eggs and meat, is called complete protein because it furnishes all the essential amino acids, sometimes also referred to as building stones.

In compliance with Dr. Dabney's urgent request, Dr. Kellogg devised a food which when prepared for the table closely resembles meat in appearance, has the fibrous texture of meat, and its flavor approximates that of a tender, juicy steak or a succulent roast. It is by no means a jejune dish, but possesses the satiety quality of meat, and aside from vitamin content, pound for pound actually supplies nutriment comparable to the most expensive cuts of meat.

Fortunately, Dr. Kellogg selected, as one of the principal ingredients of this remarkable food, a nut which supplies eight essential amino acids, although at that time the part they play in nutrition was not understood.

It must be admitted, however, that this remarkable food, which is still regarded by connoisseurs of good food as the finest vegetable entree and without a rival from the standpoint of gustatory appeal, widely differs from meat in a number of important particulars. Unlike pork, you may eat it imperfectly cooked or even raw and incur no risk of introducing into your blood stream myriads of trichinae larvae, loathesome wriggling worms which finally penetrate into the muscles and sometimes cause great suffering, even death. Then, too, after eating it, no tapeworm will take up residence in your intestinal canal, a misfortune which may befall anyone who eats imperfectly cooked beef.

From an esthetic standpoint as well as one of economy, the superiority of vegetable entrees over the flesh of animals is at once apparent. Every ounce of the former may be eaten, which is not true of meat. After cutting off a steak or a chop the butcher usually trims it, removing some fat or a portion of a bone. The trimming process is also repeated by the cook in preparing for the table. When it is eaten, usually some undesirable portions are left upon the plate. It is thus apparent that, unlike vegetable meat, every gram of which is healthful protein-rich nourishing food, the edible portion of a pound is considerably less than sixteen ounces.

The experimental results of many nutrition laboratories show that this food and any other foods which supply the essential amino acids may replace meat in dietary. These findings are validated by many centuries of experience. By far the great majority of the people of the world live upon a bill of fare which does not include meat, securing the amino acids from other sources. The teeming millions of China and India rarely taste meat. During the recent great conflict meat almost entirely disappeared from the tables of the people in England, and their health actually improved although they were for a number of years subjected to the nerve wracking hazards of war.

The foregoing facts should dissipate any fears entertained by even the most carnivorous minded persons that the health of the nation will suffer if every citizen of the land cannot include in his daily dietary the quantity of meat that he has been accustomed to eat. The essential amino acids supplied by meat may be obtained from other foods and at much less cost.

Editor, The Broom:
Dear Sir:

I want to thank you so much for continuing sending the paper long after my subscription had expired.

It is a truthful fearless paper, one of the few in the good old U. S. A.

I have often wondered why the War Mongers did not suppress it?

May you and your paper have a long successful future. With kindest regards, I am,

Yours very sincerely, Mrs. M. C.

The resignation of Secretary of State James Byrnes represents the second withdrawal of Bernard Baruch from public life. It is an open secret that Baruch financed and supported Byrnes' political campaigns. Although Byrnes was growing to resent Baruch's interference, he was considered for years by many as the stooge of this "enigmatic" figure who has exerted so much influence in Washington for the past 40 years.

The Blondes Will Survive

My dear Mr. de Aryan:

Congratulations on your valiant, continuing fight against our common enemy. Along with brave Eugene Brand you and I both are on the HONOR ROLL in Boghous Derounian's book, "The Plotters". I certainly consider it an honor to be listed in his book to be up and against such men as he. He must be awfully ignorant to even think that to be listed as an enemy of such as he would be detrimental to our characters or reputations. Intelligent people will know that WE are "'way out front in the fight to dethrone insanity . . . and place commonsense back on its rightful pedestal."

What REALLY amazes me is the fact that OUR enemies can EVER hope to win out and DESTROY the WHITE ARYAN Race. That is as IMPOSSIBLE as an attempt to destroy GOD Himself. God didn't finally create our lovely blonde girls and women to have them obliterated by the anti-Christ. He makes it His business to create a GENIUS among we GENTILES once every so often to set OUR people right in the matter of WHICH Race is really the CHOSEN Race to finally reach the Kingdom of Heaven. ALL the OTHER Races He created to MAKE the ARYAN realize his SUPERIORITY and the real angelic qualities of his women when stacked up against the semi-human females of those sub-human species.

Like myself, you may often be discouraged by the ignorance and stupidity of OUR people. The VERY ones who are supposed to be intelligent . . . and who are supposed to help us mould public opinion . . . denounce communism in one breath . . . and in the NEXT breath uphold the communist line by attacking some REAL American who has sort of spoken "out of turn". The anti-Christ has plainly stated that they will destroy any GOY who makes an effort to come to the front as a leader of the Gentiles. They also state, in their PROTOCOLS . . . that they will use stupid Gentiles to help them destroy said possible Gentile leaders. How they are succeeding will be obvious to any thinking person!

Human ideas rule the earth, and I want to get it across in your wonderful paper . . . for all future generations . . . that without beautiful white and pink women to idolize and adore mankind would surely go back to the forest . . . and women would become ONLY female animals. Let such as communist Helen Douglas think this over. SHE has ALL to lose and NOTHING to gain by her evil activities.

THE ROAD TO FAME

The magic of a wonderous Mind.
To it was I attracted.
I lingered long — absorbing much,
Of all that beauty offered.

My Soul was starved for finer things;
My life was sorely wrought.
My efforts in the business world,
Being many, were spent for naught.

I struggled on in upward climb,
To reach the light of a better time.
I stumbled here, and stumbled there,
Before the many who did not care.

My burden grew as years took flight,
My taunting spirit seared my might.
I stood upon this thought with shame,
And welcomed those who round me came.

My mind bore scars, no thing could heal,
About me, life had spun its wheel.
I gazed about me in sad confusion;
Forgive, Oh! Forgive, this untimely intrusion.

My mind seemed warped, — I could not think,
For those about, from me did shrink.
I bade my time as no one knows,
But those enmeshed in the throes.

I clambered for space,—no space was there;
I reached for substance, I touched the air;
I screamed for mercy,—I had no voice,
To be thus smitten, was an ugly curse.

I tried to run, no feet had I;
I began to weep, no tears had I;
I tried to think, but no thoughts came,
'Tis all a nightmare, this journey to fame.

—Katherine Goerner.

During the past week a young woman was raped on the grounds of the Congressional Library by a 29-year-old Negro. This is only one of hundreds and almost thousands of such crimes. It is now a matter of common knowledge in Washington that the streets are absolutely unsafe for white women after dark. This bad condition is traceable to the political demagoguery of the past 15 years, which has attempted to force social intermixture between blacks and whites.

The New Dealer who has been keeping the personal funds of the members of Congress embezzled many hundreds and thousands of dollars. He was one of the big contributors to the P. A. C.-endorsed candidate Leif Erickson who defeated Mr. Wheeler in the Montana Democratic primary.

The Peace Lovers

Adm. King, war time commander of the fleet, has disclosed that early in 1941 the Roosevelt administration made a secret deal with Portugal by which the United States was to seize the Azores Island. Portugal, a neutral in the European war, was to make an official protest when the islands were seized only to hoodwink the Germans.

Some details of this plan came out at the congressional investigation of Pearl Harbor. The facts are recounted in George Morgenstern's best seller, "Pearl Harbor: the Story of the Secret War". Adm. Stark, chief of naval operations in 1941, testified that on May 22 of that year Mr. Roosevelt ordered him to prepare an expedition of 25,000 men to seize the islands. It was not then disclosed that Portugal had agreed sub rosa to the project.

Later in the investigation, Sumner Welles' account of the Atlantic conference disclosed that the Azores project, which had been left in abeyance during the interval, was then revived by Mr. Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill. Mr. Welles revealed that Mr. Roosevelt had been in secret communication with Dictator Salazar and had won a written commitment from him approving the seizure of the islands.

All of this, of course, was a top secret in 1941. Mr. Roosevelt had just won a third term by his repeated promises to the electorate that he wasn't going adventuring into foreign wars. He was a great lover of peace and he won his reelection by outlying Willkie about his dedication to peace. He was attached to the phrase "peace loving nations" and said that this was one of them. As soon as he got the third term, it was a different story. He had his plans all ready to jump into war and, after some annoying interruptions caused by the refusal of Germany and Japan to accommodate him with a belligerant act, he put them into practice.

Einstein, War Resister, A-Bomb Chairman

IS THE ATOM BOMB A DISEASE OR A SYMPTOM?

We have before us an article reprinted from the NEW YORK TIMES Magazine entitled, "Only Then Shall We Find Courage", which is one Michael Amrine's interview with Albert Einstein. Einstein is Chairman of the Emergency Committee of Atomic Scientists. This Emergency Committee and its chairman are greatly exercised over the imminence of world destruction, due to the atom bomb. The entire message of this interview as interpreted by Mr. Amrine, is predicated on Mr. Einstein's statement that "a new type of thinking is essential, if mankind is to survive and move to higher levels". Then follows another article in this same leaflet, reprinted from the AMERICAN SCHOLAR, which is titled, "Is Einstein Right?"

Was it not some two decades or less ago that Scientist Einstein got out of his ivory tower long enough to express agreement with and encouragement of war-resisting on the part of the general run of us nobodies who are always dated to be the atom-bomb fodder for those who maintain their reputations as the Great and Near Great? To world-renowned scientists, it may make sense for war resisters, between made-to-order rampant war-hysteria periods, to express support of all-out war resistance along with the nobodies, and then, when the politician-directed war-hysteria tide comes sweeping across the land to become the head of its atom-bomb-making group of stooges. Being but a village editor, we can easily be off beam on what makes war-resisting sense to those in the scientist bracket; But anyway, by all the rules in all the books, it was not the nobodies, but the "scientist" emergency committee who "engineered" the building of the Tower of Babel, and as we village editors see it, the Tower of Babel was a booby trap that ought to get some consideration from those who lead out in this "new type of thinking" (nothing said about old type of acting) "that is essential if mankind is to survive and move to higher levels". —Boise Valley Herald.

BEWARE THE WILY JEW

By ELLIS O. JONES

Beware, my son, the wily Jew.
Remember he's a thing to view
At all times with suspicion.
Beware his false and fawning smile,
His crafty manner full of guile.
These are his ammunition.

Beware the sneaking tricks he plays.
Beware his sly instrusive ways.
He'll serve 'em by the ladle.
He has them constantly on tap
To victimize the Gentile sap.
He's taught it from the cradle.

His primal passion, man and boy
Is how to mulct the hated Goy.
It is his main ambition.
He's taught it at his mother's knee.
He's taught it in the nursery—
A sacred racial mission.

To catch the witless city boob
Or unsuspecting rural rube
In manner predatory,
To filch, finagle, cheat and thieve,
Misrepresent, distort, deceive—
These are his paths to glory.

Millions of dollars are now available for the opening of a new fight to force through the FEPC. This is a proposed Federal law to make it a criminal offense, punishable by fine, prison, or both, to refuse to employ an individual because of his color, his race, or his religion. The provision is being pushed by Negro and Jewish organizations.

The Radicals Devour Their Child

J. David Stern, publisher of the Philadelphia Record and Camden Morning Post and Evening Courier, which have been struck by the American Newspaper guild for the last three months, has sold the three papers to the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin and suspended publication. His statement said that it was the only way out of a hopeless situation.

"Guild policy," said Stern, "has acted to restrict the rights of management to a degree where it has become too great a burden to operate a completely independent press. I will not attempt to give the reason for this strange attitude of guild leadership. I only know that the Record, Philadelphia's liberal newspaper, has been chosen by this one union as a target for its unusual theories."

Stern's Record was the darling of the radicals. It was an all-out supporter of the New Deal and every leftwing cause. When it signed a guild shop contract, the guild members acclaimed its publisher as a most enlightened fellow. The honeymoon continued for a few years until they got ready to cut his throat and do themselves and their fellow workers in other crafts out of their jobs. Now the guild remarks in pain that the death of the three papers is a "surprise". — Chicago Tribune.

Wagner Labor Tyranny Destroys Three Powerful Newspapers — A Lesson for Congress . . . Lincoln's Ancestry

By WASHINGTON ADAMS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8 (Special)—J. David Stern was an ardent "Newdealer". His "Philadelphia Record" was the first in America to reorganize and bargain with the new left-wing union, the American Newspaper Guild.

Now the "Record", —a millionaire paper— is dead — killed by the infamous Guild. With it also died Stern's fine newspapers in Camden, N. J. — across the river from Philadelphia— the "Morning Post" and the "Evening Courier". Camden now has no daily newspaper.

The cruel and stupid Wagner Labor act has enabled purblind unions to kill hundreds of newspapers from coast to coast, and, strange to say, most of the murdered journals were New-deal organs.

I mentioned a number of them some weeks ago—located in New York, Providence, Boston, Rochester, Buffalo, Worcester, Portland, etc.

The Guild and associated unions killed that grand old paper, the Philadelphia "Evening Public Ledger", with their exorbitant wage demands.

Stern's employes saw it die — and learned nothing. Stern's 500 Guild workers (front office and editorial departments) went on strike with the most amazing wage demands in newspaper history, and not only killed their own jobs, but those of around 1,100 men in the mechanical departments.

Stern was paying an ordinary reporter a minimum of $68 a week — men who in depression days worked for $10 to $50 a week. The Guild demanded $100 a week for reporters, and corresponding wages for workers in higher brackets, on up to $130 a week for desk assistants. Stern had been paying $88 a week to the last named. He offered a general rise of $5 to $10 a week.

I figure that the total of the wage INCREASES demanded would have amounted to over $700,000.00 a year, which would have wiped out all the paper's profits and rendered it bankrupt.

When Stern took the "Record" over it stood fourth in circulation among Philadelphia's standard size newspapers being about ONE-FOURTH that of "The Bulletin", to which he sold his murdered pets last week.

Since wages are only the workers' share of the good or business produced, papers with small circulations and low advertising rates cannot pay as high wages as the great and prosperous newspapers. Stern was reported to have obtained a big loan from the Newdeal's "R. F. C." ten or twelve years ago. Most of this went to his workers.

Advertising rates per line in 1929 were— Bulletin 65c; Inquirer 50c; Public Ledger 45c; and Record 30c. Yet stupid employes will expect smaller businesses to pay as high wages as the big ones. It can't be done.

STRIKES ARE A FORM OF INDUSTRIAL CIVIL WAR, in which the Wagner act ties the hands of the employer and permits his destruction by scoundrels who obtain a tyranny over the workers.

TRULY CIVILIZED PEOPLE (under a "republican" and not a "democratic" government) SHOULD NOT PERMIT THIS EVIL TO PERSIST.

I feel sorry for the poor victims of the murderous Stern strike, which started Nov. 7 and ended Feb. 1. They cried out when they heard of the paper's death: "This is awful!" "It's a crime!" "Philadelphia's last crusader!"

LINCOLN'S ANCESTRY

According to Herndon, Lincoln's law partner, the Civil War President was not the son of Thomas Lincoln but of Abraham Enloe, who was a rich N. C. planter of high Virginia lineage.

Tom Lincoln when a youth had been sterilized by the mumps and was incapable of becoming a father. After the death of Nancy Hanks, his first wife, he married a young widow, a Mrs. Johnston, who was the mother of two small children; but she had no children by Tom Lincoln. She adored her stepson, little Abe.

Nancy Hanks, Lincoln's mother, was a woman of good looks, ability and courage; she was the illegitimate daughter of Lucy Hanks, who later married. Note that the first offspring never took the married name of the mother Lucy.

Herndon and Lincoln both thought that he inherited his brains and ability from fine Virginia ancestry, akin in blood to the strain of the great Virginia philosophers and statesmen, Washington, Jefferson, Madison and Monroe. In height he was 6 feet four inches tall; had blue-grey eyes, chestnut hair and complexion slightly dark.

In religion, said Herndon, Lincoln was a "free-thinker", having early read Volney. He never joined any church and rarely attended services; although he seems to have been a deist. He was completely tolerant of the religious opinions of others.

Concerning his nature his sister-in-law, Mrs. Ninian Edwards, wrote:

"His habits, like himself, were odd and wholly irregular. He would move around in a vague, abstracted way, as if unconscious of his own or anyone else's existence.

"He had no expressed fondness for anything and ate mechanically.

"I have seen him sit down at the table absorbed in thought, and never, unless recalled to his senses, would he think of food.

"But, however peculiar and secretive he may have seemed, he was anything but cold. Beneath what the world saw lurked a nature as tender and poetic as any I ever saw . . .

"With tears in his eyes, he begged me to remain longer. 'You have such strong control and influence over Mary,' he contended, 'that when troubles come, you can console me!' "

His wife, after his death, said: "He was the best man that ever lived. . . . He never failed to praise his children for their good acts. He often said, 'It is my pleasure that my children are free and happy, and unrestrained by parental tyranny. Love is the chain whereby to bind a child to its parents.' "

"Once when I assured him that Chase and others who were scheming to supplant him should be restrained in their evil designs, he generously replied: 'Do good to them that hate you and turn their ill-will into friendship.' "

Leonard Swett, an intimate friend, wrote: "Lincoln never judged men by his like or dislike of them. He would always give more to his enemies than to his friends."

It was not hatred for the Negro that caused Lincoln to favor segregation, oppose mongrelism, oppose Negro suffrage and favor Anglo-Saxon supremacy, but for the ultimate good of both races.

PROBE DEMANDED OF CLOTHES DRIVE

WASHINGTON, Jan 20—Sen. Young (R-ND) demanded today a senate investigation of clothing distribution under last year's Victory clothing drive, designed to provide garments and supplies for the people of wartorn Allied countries.

Young said he learned that Miss Elizabeth Ohlhouser, of Hazelton, N. D., had purchased from a Chicago mail order house a dress contributed to the drive by Mrs. Lars Midgaas, of Clyden, N. D.

We have shipped so much sugar to Tito of Yugoslavia that by selling it on the European black market he has been able to get enough revenue from this source alone to pay the running expenses of his army of 800,000 Russian-dominated Red soldiers.

Who Murdered Trabasso?

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

Hope I'm not going off half cocked by sending you inclosed clipping. But I can't just shrug such things off with the customary "so what?" of the day.

Art Student Anthony Trabasso, 18, died in a Brooklyn, N. Y., hospital after he had been picked up unconscious on one of the city's streets. A bloody swastika and the word "Nazi" had been carved into the flesh of his chest. Police say his death was caused by injuries received when he leaped from a rooftop and that the body lettering was self-inflicted.

Candidly this sounds like the same breed now working undercover in Palestine and in these United States of America as well. It just doesn't make sense that this boy carved himself up with that symbol and word.

Sounds more like the typical diabolical work of those scoundrels who have committed every crime under the Sun under the cloak of patriotism. I think it's another one of those Brooklyn fish stories.

Most anything can happen in a town that produces "Murder, Inc."

Some of my own experiences with that breed cause me to notice things others pass up.

Honestly,

Pres. Harry S. Truman
White House
Washington, D. C.
Mr. President,

I take this opportunity to inform you of a discrepancy which has appeared in the classifications of two persons by your subordinate appointees in the local draft boards of San Diego. My brother, David L. de Aryan, was classified 1V-E by his local board; my local board denied jurisdiction of my classification and referred it to an appeal board which has classified me as 1-A-O. However, our grounds for classification are identical.

You are responsible for the acts of your subordinates since I have informed you of their apparent indiscriminate application of rules and regulations which you have prescribed. I hope you will investigate the matter and take the proper steps to remedy the situation; I will appreciate any advice which I personally should act upon.

In accepting the office of President of the United States, you have made a solemn declaration to God to witness that you would remain ever aware and reverent of Him when acting in official capacity. But when one takes the Army oath, he makes a contract with killers to disobey God and His Commandment: "Thou shalt not kill!" The Christian principles of the Sermon on the Mount also are disregarded by the Army. How can peace and prosperity come to our country when the very Laws of Life are ignored by its members?

Sincerely, FRED de ARYAN

It is believed by some that the next vacancy in the Supreme Court of the United States will be filled by James Byrnes, who recently resigned as Secretary of State. This will give President Truman the opportunity to take care of his friend Byrnes for life.

There are seven Jewish members in the House of Representatives of the 80th Congress . . . Adolph J. Sabath (D) Ill.; Sol Bloom, Emanuel Eller, Arthur J. Klein, Leo Rayfield and Benjamin Rabin, all of New York and all Democrats; the seventh is a Republican, Jacob K. Javits, also of New York.

Can Jews Be Christians?

Dear Kosti:

I enjoy your scientific articles (atoms, etc.), and also your racial clarifications immensely. Aryan and Jew. You are correct on the "belly-worship" status of most Jews and the Vegetarian paper. I often wonder just how sincere these Jewish vegetarians are in expressing humanitarian ideals and love for all fellow creatures. It still is a questionmark in my mind.

Suppose a Jew does accept the CHRIST and as you say then "no longer is a Jew" yet his physical features and characteristics are still of a "bastard" breed, do we accept him on his merits as a Christian and one of us yet not strictly Aryan? A Negro can be Christian; perhaps Jews also. Sincerely yours,

PAUL SCHIMANSKI

* * * *

Dear Paul:

One must not use terms glibly. A Christian to be such is the perfect image of God expressed in the Aryan or Zend race. You cannot have a "Christian Negro", anymore than you can have an Aryan Negro, or a Jewish Christian, or steaming hot ice.

The terms Christian, Jew, Negro are being deliberately used out of context by our modern racketeers to spread confusion, maintain strife, so that we would be so busy quarrelling among ourselves that we paid no attention to their successful schemes of robbing and enslaving us all.

First, we should get off our high horse of imagining ourselves such superior beings because we happen to be white. The white race today ranks lowest. A black Guinea cannibal ranks higher than President Truman. The cannibal will kill a man to eat him, Truman kills them by the hundreds of thousands for the beastly lust of power. Truman is lower in evolution than a tiger. The tiger knows no better, Truman had first to murder every flicker of a divine conscience to become the tool of the Sanhedrin and do their dirty work, accept the responsibility.

Once one follows principle, everything clears. If this nation lived up to the Aryan-Christ precepts the whole matter of Jew and Negro relations would be as simple as ABC and arithmetic.

Hence, look into your own heart first. Do you live up to the highest concept? As you do, you will see clearly the answer to the racial, the religious, the economic and political problems. It takes intellectual integrity to perceive the Truth. This can be achieved only by living up to what you already know to be eternally true.

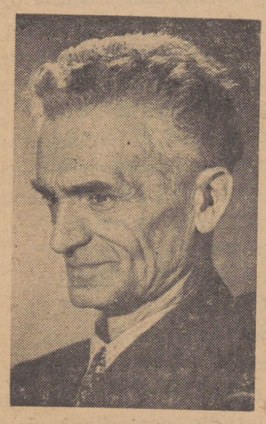
Sincerely yours, COUNT KOSTI.

"Iron Face" de Aryan

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

Emerson said "The man is only half himself, the other half is his expression. Adequate expression is rare."

This brings me to the point I want to tell you about as I look at your face in a recent issue of your paper. My first thought was to balance your expression — your great forehead assured me of its capacity to hold anything they could give you and the next impression was "Well, they can't fool him". No matter what they said or left unsaid —or any deviltry going on in their small dome was not hidden from you. With this a deep respect for your ability and wisdom goes to you.



C. Leon de Aryan

Another point I want to very briefly touch upon. Upton Close. You commented upon him recently and you were again right. It does seem these would-be-gooders—always at a time when the people have been worked up to a point where they are sold on them—that the disappointment comes in. I looked at the book he so glorifies, "Pearl Harbor" by George Morgenstern, and quit at page 4. This man is like all others such. He has taken his stuff from at least nine different sources; books, etc., already published; not first hand information which was the impression I got to begin with. He is as biased as all the rest of them put together. It is what I call cheesy—and to think Upton Close turns to the left of his calling. It seems they go just so far, and no further. Just what is it that breaks them down? He is, or impresses me, commercializing on this book. He said "is he having fun", well let's hope it is not fun at our expense—again. I am not so easily fooled anymore, I always wait just a little, to see what is next in line, I want the motive to bare itself. It usually does.

Now then, what next —

You will remember "Iron Pants Johnson". Well it is now "Iron Face de Aryan". You have what it takes—and I fear I could never survive the shock if you ever turned to the left.

"Reverie" is most wholesome and beneficial to our mind and to all our faculties—but the results might not be so beneficial to your friends, depending upon its brand. Let's hope my brand won't knock you out. It will take more than I can give to knock out the irony from the face of C. Leon de Aryan — this I know. Most sincerely,

KATHERINE GOERNER

Negro Ballot Curbs Pushed by Talmadge

ATLANTA, Ga., Gov. Herman Talmadge contended that the people of Georgia endorsed white supremacy when they elected his late father governor.

Talmadge testified before a Senate Judiciary Committee conducting public hearings on his bill to bar Negroes from primary elections.

Talmadge told the committee that his late father's victory in 105 of the state's 159 counties in last summer's primary was a clear mandate to make the Talmadge white supremacy platform into state law.

"My father, Eugene Talmadge, carried the banner for a white primary, and when the ballots were counted, a majority of the people said in effect that they wanted a Democratic white primary," Talmadge said.

"We can bring back a Democratic white primary if we so desire."

* * * *

If the state of Georgia introduces a white primary, they must of necessity introduce parallel with it a black primary, unless they propose to perjure themselves every time they take an oath to uphold the U. S. Constitution.

Today the U. S. Constitution guarantees equal citizen rights and privileges to all, regardless of race and color.

Talmadge, like the rest of the white Tories, fails to realize that giving the Negro equal economic rights, AFTER THE WHITE MAN HAS THEM, TOO, would solve all present complications in the South in the color line. Not even the white man has equal economic rights as long as the old English-Tory land-title privilege prevails that does not tax land for state and federal revenue. That's what Talmadge and his stooges are afraid of, that the Negro might be the first to outvote the Tories and introduce EQUAL ECONOMIC OPPORTUNITY.

Unless this is done the "Henry George" way, it will happen even here in the Marxian-Communist way as it is already proceeding in England now.

"Psychiatry" for Politics

Psychiatry may be perverted to control our political thinking. Mr. O. John Rogge, until recently Special Assistant to the U. S. Attorney General, has publicly advocated such control! In a public address at Oakland, California, on November 1st, 1946, Mr. Rogge stated, as nearly as I can requote from memory, that:

"Our hope may be perhaps in Psychiatry. If the world is destroyed by an atomic bomb, probably not everybody will die. We can hope that a number of Psychiatrists will survive to remake the mind of the world to immunize the rest of us against this fascist poison."

Real AMERICAN educators (who have always opposed fascism) must stop quickly, and now, this sly, foreign scheme to 'condition' our political thinking by the aid of this pseudo-science of 'psychiatry' that is being developed for the most part by Europeans who thoroughly hate American democracy.
